1946-1961

The photographs on the next few pages have been selected to show you life at the College in 1946, the first year of publication of The Galleon.

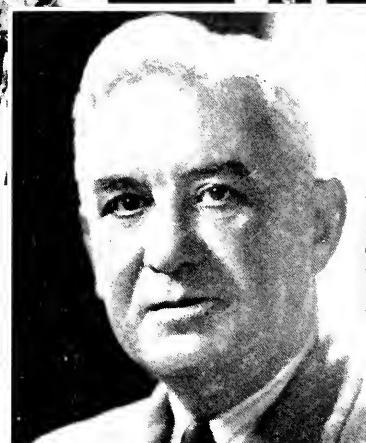

As you look through the events recorded in Galleon '61, may they bring pleasant memories.

Miss Rachel Crozier was the first advisor for the Galleon.

COURT OF BEAUTY

Miss Galleon, Miss Sophomore, Miss Freshman, and members of the Court of Beauty are chosen for personality, charm, poise, intelligence, and grooming, as well as for physical attractiveness. Pictures of these young ladies were taken by Mr. Ray Wendt of Sam R. Quincey Studios in the gardens of Bethesda-by-the-Sea Church in Palm Beach.

MISS GALLEON CONTEST

Nine girls were selected Saturday, Jan. 14, to represent P.B.J.C. beauty in this year's Galleon. The judging took place in the Home-Economics Department.

Below: Eight of the nine winning contestants.

THIS TOO IS PALM BEACH JUNIOR COLLEGE

Mr. Whitmer goes into a huddle with Ricky Mobley over a problem.

Below: Students from Seacrest High were only a few of the high school students to visit P.B.J.C. campus this year.

Supt. and Mrs. Howell Watkins,
Pres. and Mrs. Harold Manor at a faculty reception at Holiday Inn, Palm Beach.

Attending a convention of Florida Junior College Student Government Association in Daytona Beach were Russ Martin, Barbara Pribula, Carol Martin, Helen Hurlbut, and Tom Riggs. Russ was elected state president.

This election year the campus was overrun with politicians. Here Bernd Fossum shakes hands with Mr. George Peterson, Republican candidate for Governor.

Members of the College Band go into a jam session: George Petruff at drums, Carl Cawood at the piano, Mike Walls and Dan Garber on trumpets, Robin Sayles on clarinet.

Burt Reynolds, PBJC alumnus and promising actor in movies and television, appeared in a curtain-raiser before each performance of "Streetcar Named Desire." Burt attributes his initial interest in drama to Mr. Watson B. Duncan, III.

Mrs. Wilma Weigle, Bookstore Clerk, and student assistant Bill Walker wait on Jim Simpson.

On a visit to Norton Gallery, an art class listens to Mr. Willis Woods, Director of the Norton and art instructor at PBJC in Evening Division.

The Evening Division, under the supervision of Dr. Paul Graham, is a very important part of the College, having an enrollment of 614 in the fall of 1960. Here Miss Anne Buckley, Secretary to Dr. Graham, gives information to a student.

Nursing students get clinical experience at Good Samaritan Hospital. Above, Frances Dennis-Leigh, and below, Virginia Colella working in pediatrics section.

The cover on the book you are reading is only one of many excellent designs submitted by The Art Department.

Left: Many of our students have part of their expenses defrayed by scholarships. Here Bonnie Duer receives a scholarship award for proficiency in secretarial science from Miss Miriam Ostermann, representing The Credit Women's Breakfast Club of the Palm Beaches. Dr. Manor and Mr. Batson look on.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

MR. HOWELL L. WATKINS
Superintendent of Public Instruction

Mr. Watkins has been Superintendent of Public Instruction in Palm Beach County since 1948. Previously he was Dean of Palm Beach Junior College.

CAMPUS SCENES

Sophomore nursing student Margaret Mitchell gets clinical experience at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Ralph Datillio, President of Political Union last year, presents a set of The United States Legal Code to the Library on behalf of the Union on June 7, 1960. Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, Librarian, accepts the gift while Mr. Joseph Payne, left, Advisor to the Union, beams his pleasure.

The greatly expanded facilities of the Library went into service at the beginning of the second semester, even before completed.

ACTIVITIES

REGISTRATION

Left: Freshmen in their dinkies take time out for refreshments at snack bar.

Below: Ron Wicknick, Co-editor of the Beachcomber, speaks to freshmen at orientation meeting.

AND ORIENTATION

In September a record enrollment of 1126 day students found added facilities in a new gymnasium and a teaching auditorium. The Evening Division too was large, with an enrollment of 614 students. During the first semester the Library space was doubled, so that at the beginning of the second semester all registration was taken care of there.

Below, at a banquet in the Student Center on December 3, the newly formed Collegiate Civitan Club received its charter. Proudly holding the new banner are Tom Riggs, Pat Gordon, Sam Humphries, Ken Bucher, Bob Harris, and Buddy Herrington.

Culminating years of planning and self-evaluation on the part of the faculty and administration, a committee from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and another from the State Department of Education came in November, preparing the way for PBJC's re-accreditation as a member of the Southern Association. Above, Dr. J. T. Kelley and Dr. J. L. Wattenbarger, State Department of Education; Pres. J. J. Hayden, Jr., of Perkinston, Mississippi, Junior College; Vice-President Grady St. Clair of Del Mar College, Corpus Christi, Texas; Dr. J. A. Hunter, Chairman of the Committee and Dean of Student Personnel, Louisiana State University; Mr. William Pollard, Librarian, William and Mary College, Norfolk Division; Dr. Marshall Hamilton, President of North Florida Junior College, Madison. As a result of a favorable report by this committee, PBJC should be re-accredited next year.

Seventy-one pints of blood were donated by students and faculty in Thi Del's annual blood drive in the Health Clinic.

ARTISTS AND MODELS' BALL

A highlight of the spring season was the Artists and Models' Ball, co-sponsored by the Art Club and Circle K on April 8, 1960. The Student Center gave the appearance of the ruins of an ancient Indian temple overrun with luxuriant tropical growth. Students and guests danced to the rhythm of the Bel Aires, carrying out the ball's theme of "Blue Voo Doo."

BARBECUE AND OPEN HOUSE

On April 10, 1960, college officials and Southside Kiwanis Club of West Palm Beach combined efforts to sponsor an open house and a barbecue. The open house provided an opportunity for the public to tour the buildings and become better acquainted with our work on campus. Proceeds from the barbecue sponsored by Kiwanis went for campus improvements.

EASTER ASSEMBLY

A girls' trio, composed of Sharon Carpenter, Maija Robbins Murray, and Joan Baird, sang a humorous song about "Girls."

Men's quartette, composed of Leonard Higbee, Sam Bivans, Bill Tomlinson, and Jim Clifton singing "In My Arms."

The College Singers and the Home Economics Department combined efforts to present an outstanding program in the Student Center just before Easter 1960. The Singers, under the direction of Miss Letha Madge Royce, took as their theme "Girls," particularly where fashion is concerned. Girls of the Home Economics Department, under the direction of Mrs. Edith Hall, who also served as narrator, modeled the wardrobes they had made in the Department.

Leonard Higbee sings "Easter Parade" to Bill Tomlinson's little daughter.

LET US GIVE THANKS . . .

This yearbook is the result of co-operation by many people—the staff, the faculty, the student body, the advertisers, the photographers, the artists, the publishers. Since it would be impossible to give credit to all who deserve it, please do not feel slighted if we do not mention you by name. We appreciate every bit of help, however small.

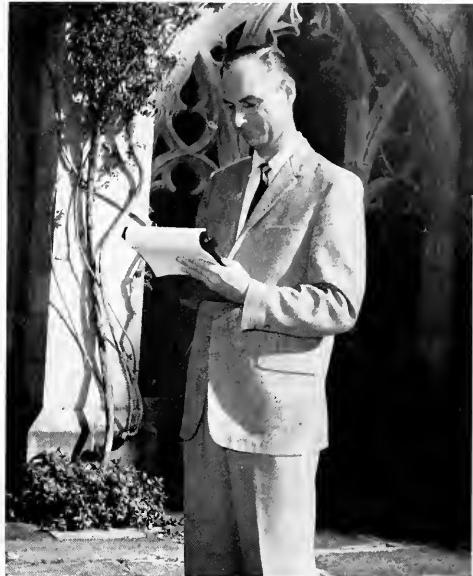

We especially thank Miss Edna Wilson for the use of many pictures in the anniversary section; Mr. Watson B. Duncan, III, for the loan of the picture of Burt Reynolds; Mrs. Nina Jensen and her art classes for the cover and art work. We appreciate the help and ideas given us by Mr. Lon Watters of Taylor Publishing Company. And we wish to thank Sam R. Quincey Studios for much co-operation and to express our gratitude for excellent individual photographs this year.
